In the further discussion after leaving your Office, we arrived at the conclusion that, given certain of the facts and assumptions, we have no better proposal to offer. We do suggest that the letter be adjusted to insert TSD in place of Office of Logistics in paragraphs 2 and 3 of your proposed paper to Colonel White.

In your absence I took the liberty of mentioning to Colonel White the particular worry of the large num-and his belief that we more or less must proceed as discussed in your paper, having gone already so far down that road.

Meeting

Colonel White

Mr. Huston was interested in our techniques of conducting personality reports. He indicated a possibility of applying these techniques on a domestic basis. I made certain with Dr. Tietjen that only the techniques should be described and that under no circumstances should there be any understanding of assistance or collaboration in any degree of any domestic product that Mr. Huston might subsequently develop.
